WORKING WATERFRONT TRAIL

LOOKOUTS WILL BRING VISITORS TO SAYWARD

Tuesday, April 17, 2018

COURTENAY – Tourism is evolving, from a passive pursuit where people simply look at attractions, to an active, experiential event where visitors can be immersed in the history and culture of a place.

The Village of Sayward is embarking on a plan to create an experiential tourism asset, giving visitors an insight to the fishing and forestry industries that are the heart of the community's working waterfront. This project will form part of a growing network of visitor amenities focused on the region's rich resource sector history.

The project is being funded with $183,000 from the Island Coastal Economic Trust as well as contributions from the BC Rural Dividend Fund and the Village of Sayward.

"This is excellent news for the Village of Sayward," said Claire Trevena, MLA North Island and Minister of Transportation and Infrastructure. "The new amenities should attract more visitors and businesses into the area."

The multi-phase Working Waterfront project will create new assets including a trail, gateway, and lookout, and feature historical and cultural information highlighting the community's history in fishing and forestry.

"The waterfront trail and lookouts will leverage Sayward's history as a former 'company town', and the ongoing activities in forestry and fishing, to attract and educate visitors," said ICET Chair Phil Kent.

CROSS-CANADA SHORTLIST ANNOUNCED FOR 5th ANNUAL TUNED-IN CANADA: THE CCSA AWARDS

- The Canadian Cable Systems Alliance (CCSA) is pleased to announce the shortlisted nominees for our TUNED-IN CANADA AWARDS - a nationwide, annual competition designed to shine a spotlight on the great work performed by independent local providers of internet, television and telephone services across Canada.

Best people: celebrating your office hero

Cable Cable (ON) - Kevin Marr

Logan Lake TV Society (BC) - David Young

Sayward Valley Communications (BC) - Ian Clark

South Island Cable (BC) - Andrew Hofmann

"This year's collection of nominations came from members in more communities than ever before," said Jay Thomson, CEO of the CCSA. "We also introduced some new categories, which have allowed us to capture even more stories about their great efforts to connect Canadians from coast to coast."

"Each nomination represents a story that we can share with decision makers and stakeholders in our government and regulatory environments," continued Thomson. "These stories demonstrate the important role independent communications providers play in Canada and the positive impact they have on their communities."

Judges Matt Polka (President and CEO of the American Cable Association), Suzanne Lamarre (Lawyer at Therrien Couture and former CRTC Commissioner), and Greg O'Brien (President of FindTV, and editor/publisher of CARTT.CA), have completed their work and the shortlisted nominees will be published on the contest website <http://www.tunedincanada.com/> for nationwide voting on April 30, 2018.

"We hope Canada will support their local nominees by casting vote," said Thomson. "It will be an exciting competition, so stay tuned."

Sayward Share Shed

Hours 10-12 Mon-Wed-Fri-Sun.

Closed stat's

Those are the normal hours, but can be open early if Howie is not too busy when he opens the recycling plus some hours on Sunday.

WE ACCEPT most items that are in good and clean. Clean, because we have no water on site. We have a spray bottle and paper towels and we clean what we can, but some things just go to the dumpster. In perfect working condition only, nobody wants a 3 speed fan that only works on 2 or your favourite coffee cup with the handle glued on. We get far too much dumpster material and the tipping fee's come out of our donations. A partial list of things we DON'T ACCEPT or people don't want are.

Fabric covered furniture, Bathroom Items (toilets, sinks), clothing, suitcases, most electronics, older style TV,s, Teflon pans with scratches, kitchen ware with rust, reusable glad type storage containers, yogurt containers, large picture frames, picture frames with no glass, dishes like 1 plate or 1 bowl, etc. just fill our dumpster.

We appreciate your participation and cooperation. Working together to keep it out of our landfills.

We still have a problem with dirty items. We have no water or means to clean these items and if nobody takes them, they go in the dumpster.

WORKING WATERFRONT TRAIL, LOOKOUTS Continued...

The first phase of the project will see construction of a 1.6km gravel trail; creation of 'The Gateway' area that features a defined entry point, way finding signage, and extensive historical and cultural information, as well as parking and landscaping.

One of the highlights of the first phase of the project will be the construction of the 'Boom Boat Ballet Lookout'. Positioned overlooking the Western Forest Products booming grounds, the lookout will invite visitors to read about the history of forestry in the Sayward Valley and provide them with a front-row view the current operations in front of them – including the intricate dance of the boom boats, known as the 'Boom Boat Ballet'.

Located at a natural stopping point for visitors travelling to the North Island and back, the project will attract new visitors and encourage visitors stopping in to stay longer.

"The project is already spurring interest in the expansion of existing hospitality businesses and attracting new service providers, eco-tourism operators and residential development," said Village of Sayward Mayor John McDonald. "This project will also complement and support new initiatives such as a plan for a First Nations and Fishing interpretive centre, which we are working to develop with the K'omox First Nation as well as community based resource sector partners."

The project, with a total budget of $367,250, will begin construction this spring, with completion forecast for October 2018.

Sayward Valley Folk Music Society News

Once again, a heartfelt thanks goes out to everyone who attended our April concert with the Clover Point Drifters. Without the support of our sponsors, volunteers and the community, programs like this would not be possible.

On Sunday, May 13th, we are pleased to introduce to Sayward, the Victoria based folk roots duo, Zonnis. Andrea and Adam Zonnis first took the stage together in 2009 and married in 2010. They formed Zonnis in 2013 as a celebration of the birth of their son Zander. Zonnis has traveled extensively, appearing throughout Western Canada, the US and central America. As entertainers and recording artists, their music is packed with extraordinary musicianship and a whole lot of toe tapping fun. If a label could be given to this music, it would be Cabaret Folk. Engaging audiences with original compositions and cover tunes, a Zonnis show is guaranteed to leave you smiling.

Come and spend a memorable evening with Zonnis in this special concert for Mother's Day. Bring along a loved one and enjoy the show.

Sunday, May 13 at 7:00 at the Heritage Hall. Admission is $10.

Doors open at 5:30. Open Mic at 6:00. Children 12 and under, Volunteers and Open mic performers are free.

Please note that the open mic is not a jam session. Performances are limited to 10 minutes or 3 songs. It is advised to come prepared.

Coming to the Heritage Hall on Sunday June 10: The Black Swan Fiddlers.

Garden Club News

Gardeners are always keen to get going as the days get sunnier but freshly cultivated soil can be easily compacted when we walk on it. Our valley bottom soils are generally clay loam and can easily get tramped into a hard material that roots can't penetrate properly. This problem can be avoided by gardening in beds so that we reduce the proportion of the garden in paths. When working between paths you can lay down temporary planks or strips of plywood to spread out your weight while planting seeds.

As the weather warms we can continue to plant peas, beets and small starter plants of lettuce, spinach, broccoli, cabbage and kale. Early plantings can be protected with cloches and plastic tunnels. Onion sets planted three weeks ago are showing their green tops but it is not too late to plant the little onion bulbs and still get mature onions in the summer.

As a follow-up to the talk on mushroom growing given by Kevin Mitchell in the fall we will be having a hands-on workshop to provide the skills and materials for growing the Garden Giant mushrooms on Saturday, May 26th following the market at the Heritage Hall. Watch for posters giving more details.

The May meeting of the club will be concentrating on gathering our stock for our annual sale as part of the community garage sale. This is our opportunity to share our garden bounty with our neighbors at bargain prices and our biggest fund raiser of the year. Members and others who want to share should bring their plants to the meeting so we can get them ready for the sale two days later. Plants can also be brought to the booth at the Heritage Hall. Starter plants of vegetable and flowers, personally collected seeds, plant divisions and raspberry canes are all welcome. At the meeting we will also be distributing flower plants that the club has purchased for placement in the planters at the mail box locations. That sounds like a busy and fun evening on May 10 at 7:00. New members and novice gardeners are always welcome. Hope to see you there.

Comox Strathcona Waste Management Targets Illegal Dumpers

Earth Week marks the first year milestone of the Illegal Dumping Program. Since the launch of our program, 120 illegal dump sites have been reported and more than 70,000 kg of waste has been removed from the environment. Staff will begin implementing the next phase of our education program next month, which will be primarily focussed on Campbell River and the surrounding communities. Last year, the majority of reports came from Comox Valley residents. This year, we hope to increase the awareness about how to report illegal dumping activities in our communities to the north.

Traffic Stats for the period:

Boat Patrols for the period:

3 vessel patrols for service. Boat was out for maintenance for the majority of March

Significant files and police interactions:

Marine Harvest Fish Farm Protest: On February 19th, at 0920 hours, that Sayward Detachment received a call from Paul KENDRICK, Freshwater Transport Manager for Marine Harvest, that the hoses used to transfer the fish from the trucks to the boat were damaged, specifically, screws drilled through the hoses in various spots. Workers were preparing the hoses for the first off load and observed the screws, therefore checked the rest of the hoses and determined that screws were placed in various spots for the length of the hoses. Statements obtained from workers and did not observe anything suspicious. Cpl. GRAHAM removed and seized a 4 inch decking screw from the hose. Marine Harvest last did a fish off load on February 8th, where they put back the hoses in their normal spot after each day of loading. Video surveillance viewed from the Wharfinger Office and SFS, nothing suspicious could be detected. KENDRICK provided a bag of 157 screws that were removed from the remainder of the hoses. Estimate of cost for the day for Marine Harvest due to the Mischief was $26,200 and if the fish would have actually gone through the hoses, it would have been another $29,600, total amount of $55,800.

Legal Proceedings are still before the courts with Marine Harvest, DFO and the First Nations with regards to renewing the leases.

As of right now, Marine Harvest is still loading fish into the pens.

Other Information:

Cst. MANTE has received his transfer notice. He will just be going down the road to Campbell River. Departure date will be around mid June. The new Constable has been named, François VEILLETTE, who will be joining us from Nanaimo Detachment, arrival date to be determined.

Summary:

Again, just like last quarter, there has been minimal call outs (after hours). Traffic has been our highest call for service this quarter

Sincerely,

Cpl Kim GRAHAM

Detachment Commander

Media Release

April 18, 2018

It's National Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness Week:

Sayward's Mayor and Council Encourage Community Residents to "Save Lives through Organ Donation"

Sayward's Mayor and Council show their support for The Kidney Foundation's campaign to "Save Lives through Organ Donation" and encourage residents in their community to register their wishes for organ donation as part of National Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness Week happening April 22-29, 2018.

Right now, there are almost 652 people in BC waiting for a life-saving organ transplant, and almost 527 of those are waiting for a kidney. Thousands more are on dialysis and may also need a transplant. Sadly, many of these kidney patients will die waiting. Until there is a cure for kidney disease, a transplant is the best available therapy for most kidney patients.

"This is why The Kidney Foundation has made "Saving Lives through Organ Donation" a priority campaign and set a goal to increase organ donor registration in BC by 50% by 2020," says Pia Schindler, Executive Director, The Kidney Foundation of Canada, BC & Yukon Branch. "We know that 95% of British Columbians say they support organ donation, but to date 24% have registered on BC's organ donor registry."

"As part of our campaign to "Save Lives through Organ Donation", the Kidney Foundation is engaging with community leaders across the province to help increase organ donor awareness and registration," continues Schindler. "We are so thrilled to have the Village of Sayward on board with us."

"I was surprised to learn just that 1 in 10 people in Sayward has kidney disease," says Mayor MacDonald. "But I was equally amazed to learn that one organ donor can save up to 8 lives."

In 2016, Mayors and Council Members passed a motion at the annual Union of BC Municipalities (UBCM) meetings to increase their efforts to encourage organ donation. This motion was the result of a resolution put forth by The Kidney Foundation. At the 2017 UBCM, 70 Mayors and Council Members were interviewed on the topic of organ donation on The Kidney Foundation's kidney health bi-weekly TV Show, PLUGGED IN.

"It just makes sense to do what we can to increase organ donor awareness and registration. It only takes two minutes, but this simple act could potentially save a life," says Mayor MacDonald. "We can all do something to help this important cause, so let's make Sayward proud and get out and get registered!"

Mayors Update April 2018

As many in the community are aware Mr. John France our Chief Administrative Officer has decided it is time to retire. John has had a very successful career with local governments and public service spanning over 35 years, he will be leaving on 03 May. Council and staff wish John and his wife Linda the best on his retirement, it has been a pleasure to have John in our employ even for this brief time.

The good news is that we have hired Mr. Paul Carver as our new CAO. We had over 40 applications for the position, went to a long short list of 12 and then finally to a short list of 4 whom we interviewed. Paul comes to us highly recommended by all his references. Paul starts as our CAO on 30 April; he has an extensive background while serving in several municipal government positions. Paul holds a diploma in Civil Engineering Technology and has held many positions in engineering and land development (Surrey, Salmon Arm, Burns Lake and Vanderhoof). In 2017 Paul decided the time was right and accepted the position of CAO in Port Alice, here he took on the positions of Corporate Officer and Approving Officer in addition he was also responsible for engineering, public works, parks and recreation, land use planning and bylaw enforcement. Paul likes to volunteer his time for worthwhile community functions and events.

Councillors Mason, Ellis and I attended AVICC (Association of Vancouver Island Coastal Communities) 13 – 15 April in Victoria. There were many panels and working groups we attended.

First, I will talk about the Mayor's Caucus:

INDIGENOUS homelessness: In BC approx. 57% of homeless people are indigenous persons (First Nations, Metis, Inuit) but they are only 6% of the provinces population. An Indigenous Homeless Task Force (Team) has been set up with offices in Victoria, Nanaimo, and Campbell River on the island. At these places there is 4 – 5 separate rooms for accommodation of indigenous persons and there is availability for counselling in many forms for indigenous persons i.e.: cultural, spiritual, family relationships and returning to their community or reserve. To date there is a 75% success rate of those counselled returning to their community, fantastic stats when you see the trials and tribulations many of these individuals have endured.

Cannabis Legislation: Next was the discussion around cannabis legislation. There are two municipalities which already have established by-laws, the mayors will receive a copy of these by-laws with the minutes and I will bring them to council for discussion

Opioid Crisis: steps being taken by larger communities and everyone should be given a course on Narcan injections (talk to paramedic community health rep about putting this on) and all should be aware of pitfalls. A large number of overdoses are happening in the home by everyday people.

Social Procurement: steps to be taken to promote local social procurement and this will be followed up with a resolution to UBCM.

Changes in taxes regarding Mayor/Council stipends: Some areas are giving themselves big raises to cover the cost of increased taxes due to no longer having 1/3 of stipend being tax free. I disagreed with many of the mayors however their stipends are much more than what is given in Sayward, however I believe Sayward in an anomaly as those on our council (since I have been on council) are here because we care about our community and the stipend is incidental. Some of these municipalities are paid 10 times the amount paid to Sayward Council (Sayward is in the lower 5% provincially).

A few of the resolutions which were discussed and carried by the delegates after long debate were: Moratorium on ALR Lands for Cannabis growing, Broadcasting Personnel Information without consent, Seismic Early Warning System, Cannabis Tax Revenue Sharing, and Community Social Planning.

The three of us attended different workshops and meetings as follows:

Cannabis Regulation after Legislation, Ministry of Jobs Trades and Technology Information session, Mining

Associations Meeting, Connecting the Dots on Affordable Housing information session by Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing, Island Health update, Social Procurement Hub, Tools for Resilient Shorelines (Green Shores and More) Panel, Open Space workshop, Working together to respond to the Vancouver Island Overdose Crisis panel, on top of this there were addresses by Premier Horgan, Leader of Green Party Dr. Weaver, Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing Robinson and the Keynote Speaker was Charles Montgomery speaking on Happy City, Your City, Your Life.

Premier Horgan's address focussed on the new Strategic Priorities Fund grant program saying that the criteria have not yet been finalized but are coming soon. I will be watching this closely and the Village will get in a grant application for our infrastructure and water system.

Back to happenings in our community:

- 1) Of note is the success of our grant applications for funding, $287,000, for our Waterfront Trail Project, have a look at our website for more details.
- 2) Work is continuing in the mall and we have been assured the store will open in July
- 3) By time this news is published the new Gazebo in the park will be nearly completed.
- 4) The aerator will be installed in the pond in early May, this will reduce the occurrence of Algae.
- 5) Water treatment Plant: We have had another company come in for discussions on the plant and are waiting for their tender before moving forward, hopefully good news soon.
- 6) Lease with Library for building on site will be signed by the end of May, updates on the new library coming shortly.

Mayor
