Public Notice – All Candidates Meeting

Please be advised an All-Candidates Meeting will be held to provide Village of Sayward residents with an opportunity to hear directly from candidates seeking election to the office of Mayor and Council and to learn more about the candidates' platforms, priorities, and vision for the future of our community. This meeting is intended to help voters make informed decisions about the candidates and by offering insight into the issues, challenges, and opportunities facing the Village of Sayward.

Date: October 4, 2026

Time: 2:00 pm

Location: Kelsey Recreation Centre located at 652 H'Kusam Way, Sayward, BC

All certified candidates for the upcoming Village of Sayward municipal election have been invited to participate. The meeting will include candidate introductions including an opportunity for them to share their views on key community issues, and a question-and-answer period featuring questions from an independent moderator and of course the public.

Residents of the Village of Sayward are encouraged to attend this important community event, engage in the democratic process, and become better informed about the candidates seeking election and the issues that may impact our community in the years ahead.

Village of Sayward residents are invited to submit questions or suggested topics for discussion at the meeting. Questions must be provided in writing and can be submitted either by email to village@saywardvalley.ca or delivered to the Village Office at 652 H'Kusam Way. The Village Office must receive questions not later than 4:00 pm on Thursday, October 1, 2026.

All Village of Sayward residents are welcome to attend the All-Candidates meeting.
